What does this policy affect?

This policy affects the delivery of subjects of GCE and GCSE qualifications which contain a component(s) of non-examination assessment:

The regulator's definition of an examination is very narrow. In effect, any type of assessment that is not extremely set and taken by candidates at the same time under controlled conditions' is classified as non-examination assessment (NEA). `NEA` therefore includes, but it not limited to, internal assessment. Externally marked and/or extremely set practical examinations taken at different times across centres are classified as `NEA`.

(JCQ Instructions for conducting non-examination assessments)

Purpose of the policy

The purpose of this policy, as defined by JCQ, is to:

- covers procedures for planning and managing non-examination assessments
- define staff roles and responsibilities with respect to non-examination assessments
- manage risks associated with non-examination assessment

The policy will need to cover all types of non-examination assessment.

For the purposes of this policy any further reference to non-examination assessments may be referred to as NEA.

What are non-examination assessments?

NEAs measure subject-specific knowledge and skills that cannot be tested by timed written papers.

There are three assessment stages and rules which apply to each stage. These rules often vary across subjects. The stages are:

- task settings
- task taking
- task marking
