Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Bradford AP Academy encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- raising the concern or complaint in person or in writing to the head of centre.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- Claire Tattersall - Exams Officer

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 7 calendar days

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- complete and return a complaints and appeals form

How a formal complaint is investigated

The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the SLT (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- 21 calendar days

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- complete a complaints and appeal form

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 3 working days

The appeal will be referred to:

- Chair of Local Advisory Board (or a specially-formed committee) for consideration

It will be the responsibility of Deborah Hudson to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.

Additional details on the internal appeals process:

Please contact the Exams Officer, Claire Tattersall if you require any further help or additional information
